

JANUARY NEWSLETTER

NEWS FROM THE SALES TEAM

January is generally the time when some of our suppliers attend to the maintenance of their machinery and send their staff on annual leave, so some products may not be as readily available. Please contact your sales rep or our office to confirm lead times of products before committing work to your clients

The first quarter of the calendar year is also a popular time for price increases. Please find following the list of products that will be going up over the next couple of months.

2016 PRODUCT INCREASES

Newsletter Competition

The Big Bash League (BBL05) has arguably saved the interest in cricket this Australian summer with New Zealand going down 2 nil and the West Indies likely to do the same (or even 3 nil if the weather holds out) in the test matches. To have more than 80,000 turn up to a game in Melbourne and 27,000 sit through a game in light rain at the Gabba is certainly great for 20 20 cricket, but how do they transfer this excitement to the test arena? Only time will tell.

For anybody that can still stomach some Christmas cheer and would like the chance to win some beer then all you need to do is tell us who was the first team in BBL history to have a player score a hundred but still lose the game?

Just text the answer and your name to

Congratulations to Tom Hickey who won the basket of grog for Christmas, well done Tom enjoy!

NEWS FROM THE ACCOUNTS TEAM

We are still receiving the occasional electronic transfer without any details attached. Please use your account code e.g. ABC001 in the reference box so we can allocate the money to your account in a timely manner.

Australia Post has just increased postage, even though it may take longer for you to get your mail. If you would like your invoices and statements emailed, instead of being held up in the post, please email your request to doug@versacetimbers.com.au

Thanks Doug
