SAFETY NEWS.....

What length can you legally carry on your trailer?
This one is just a bit over length and is also soooo well restrained... NOT!

Go to the website to obtain the Queensland regulations.
<http://www.tmr.qld.gov.au/Safety/Vehicle-standards-and-modifications/Loads-and-towing/Projecting-loads.aspx>
EXCEEDING THE LENGTH RESTRICTIONS IS NOT WORTH THE RISK.
THE COST OF A DELIVERY IS LESS THAN A FINE!!

Door Specials

We currently have bulk lots of doors on clearance, come in and make an offer? Most have nothing wrong with them just old stock that's never been picked up or they've been over ordered. Hurry as stock won't last.

This last month has been a good and steady one. We are enjoying the extra space made available by the relocation of our production arm to Brendale. We are able to move more freely throughout the yard, allowing us to fulfil orders a lot quicker. Thank you to those customers who are calling in their orders before coming in to the store, it assists us in getting you in and out of our yard in a more timely manner, particularly during the morning rush. On a not so positive note, we still have some customers not reporting to the front counter to place their order and heading out to the yard or through the warehouse to pick their own products. We have multiple machines constantly moving throughout the yard and warehouse, so walking around our premises unattended is putting yourself at risk, not to mention a breach of our company Workplace Health and Safety policies. So I please stress that you must report to Karl and Norm at the front counter and place your order. If there is a line up in the clearly marked parking spaces, I urge you to please be patient and wait for the line to move along, and not park on the "keep clear" side of the driveway. The last thing I would like to add is to only enter via the gate nearest Sandgate Road. The exit gate is just that, with only our own crane trucks and contract delivery vehicles able to use this point to enter and exit our premises.

Thanks for contributing to another great month and I look forward to bringing you another yarn in the near future.
